Honourable Members, the team is here to be introduced to the National Assembly and present the ten national priorities for improving the quality of education for children as passed by the National Children's Government Parliament in 2014. I wish to exceptionally laud this historic milestone for Kenya's children and proudly report that two former officials of the Children's government, Danny Kinaro (President) and Halima Ishmail (Speaker) articulately represented the National Assembly of Kenya in the 3rd Commonwealth Parliamentary Association Youth Parliament that was held in Lusaka, Zambia in August, 2014. The two have since joined Form One in Mang'u High School and State House Girls High School respectively.

I welcome them to the National Assembly and urge them to provide dynamic leadership to their fellow pupils who have entrusted them with this duty.

Thank you".
