	administration and eventually academic performance; appreciating that in a devolved system, counties will play a big role in the educational outcomes of their counties and that the current classification limits choices and admissions besides lack of consistency in the types of schools nationally; the Senate urges the Department of Education to take immediate action to review the categorization of secondary schools as national, provincial or district schools and instead rename all secondary schools as county schools.

FURTHER COGNIZANT that Article 163(6) of the Constitution provides that the Supreme Court may give an advisory opinion at the request of the national Government, any State organ, or any County Government with respect to any matter concerning County Government;

RECALLING that the Supreme Court of Kenya in Supreme Court Advisory Opinion No. 2 of 2013 reaffirmed the central role of Senate in the legislative process and in particular with respect to Bills that concern County Governments and further pronounced itself on the manner in which, pursuant to Article 110(3) of the Constitution, the Speakers of the two Houses are to jointly resolve the question as to whether a Bill is a Bill concerning counties and, if it is, whether it is a special or an ordinary Bill;

AND WHEREAS despite the Supreme Court's Advisory Opinion, the National Assembly has failed to adhere to the requirements of Article 110(3) of the Constitution-

(a) in respect of forty-six (46) Bills originating in the National Assembly, by publishing and considering the Bills and where such Bills have been passed by the National Assembly, by proceeding to secure presidential assent to the Bills without seeking the concurrence of the Speaker of the Senate in terms of Article 110(3) of the Constitution; and

(b) in respect of twenty-one (21) Bills originating in the National Assembly, by proceeding to consider the Bills in circumstances where the concurrence process under Article 110(3) has been initiated but has not been concluded and in disregard of the proposals by the Speaker of the Senate, in accordance with the directions given in the Advisory Opinion of the Supreme Court, for the establishment of a Joint Committee to advise the Speakers on the nature of the Bills, and thereafter, where such Bills have been passed by the National Assembly, by proceeding to secure presidential assent to the Bills;

OBSERVING that in the case of twenty-six Bills originating in the Senate, the Speaker of the Senate has sought the concurrence of the Speaker of the National Assembly in terms of Article 110(3) of the Constitution, and the Speaker of the National Assembly has either not responded to the Speaker of the Senate or where there has been a response, has on each occasion stated that the Bills do not concern County Governments even though the Bills manifestly affect the functions and powers of the County Governments in terms of Article 110(1)(a) of the Constitution and of the Advisory Opinion of the Supreme Court;

CONCERNED that owing to the unlimited legislative mandate of the National Assembly, the National Assembly may have no incentive to observe or to reasonably engage in the concurrence process under Article 110(3) of the Constitution thus resulting in a legislative process that disregards the Senate and that is virtually unicameral;

FURTHER CONCERNED that the continued exclusion of the Senate in the legislative process adversely impacts the Senate's ability to represent the Counties and to protect the interests of the Counties and their Governments in the legislative process in the national Parliament and that this could eventually result in the weakening and eventual dismantling of the devolved system of government which is the cornerstone of the Constitution of Kenya, 2010;

OBSERVING that this situation has continued to persist since the constitution of the two Houses of Parliament after the last General Elections;

DESIROUS that there should be a conclusive determination on the manner in which legislation should be processed between the two Houses and on the concurrence process under Article 110(3) of the Constitution, including the procedure to be observed where there is no concurrence between the two Speakers;

NOTING ALSO that the intervention of the Courts has on several occasions been sought by various parties on matters that are actively before the Senate and which are within the constitutional jurisdiction of the Senate;

OBSERVING that where such intervention has been sought, the Courts have proceeded to issue orders whose effect has been to stop the Senate from executing its constitutional mandate;

AND NOTING that similar court orders have also been sought and issued against a number of County Assemblies resulting, in some cases, in a situation where the affected County Assemblies have been unable to hold their sittings thus affecting the execution of the functions and powers of the entire County Governments;

CONCERNED that the issuance of such Court orders has the potential of crippling the legislative arm of Government both at the national and county levels; further undermining the implementation of the devolved system of Government;

NOW THEREFORE THE SENATE RESOLVES to immediately seek an Advisory Opinion from the Supreme Court on, among others, the following matters-

(1) the constitutional status of Acts of Parliament which have been passed by one House of Parliament and assented to in contravention of Article 110(3) of the Constitution;

(2) the appropriate way forward when there is a lack of concurrence by the two Speakers of Parliament on any particular Bill;

(3) the appropriate jurisdiction of the courts over the Senate and the national Parliament in general as well as over the county legislative assemblies when these are exercising the constitutional mandates;

AND CONSEQUENTLY FURTHER RESOLVES that the necessary administrative measures be put in place to ensure that the Senate is appropriately represented in this matter at the Supreme Court.

RESOLUTION THAT:

WHEREAS Article 93 provides for the establishment of the Parliament of Kenya consisting of the National Assembly and the Senate;

AND WHEREAS Article 94 provides for the role of Parliament and, in particular, provides at Article 94(1) that the legislative authority of the Republic is derived from the people and, at the national level, is vested in and exercised by Parliament;

AND WHEREAS Articles 95 and 96 of the Constitution provide for the specific roles of the National Assembly and the Senate;

AND WHEREAS Article 96 of the Constitution provides that the Senate represents the Counties and serves to protect the interests of the Counties and their Governments and further participates in the law-making function of Parliament by considering, debating and approving Bills concerning Counties as provided in Part 4 of Chapter Eight of the Constitution;

COGNIZANT that pursuant to Article 3 of the Constitution every person has an obligation to respect, uphold and defend the Constitution.

FURTHER COGNIZANT that Article 163(6) of the Constitution provides that the Supreme Court may give an advisory opinion at the request of the national Government, any State organ, or any County Government with respect to any matter concerning County Government;

RECALLING that the Supreme Court of Kenya in Supreme Court Advisory Opinion No. 2 of 2013 reaffirmed the central role of Senate in the legislative process and in particular with respect to Bills that concern County Governments and further pronounced itself on the manner in which, pursuant to Article 110(3) of the Constitution, the Speakers of the two Houses are to jointly resolve the question as to whether a Bill is a Bill concerning counties and, if it is, whether it is a special or an ordinary Bill;

AND WHEREAS despite the Supreme Court's Advisory

Opinion, the National Assembly has failed to adhere to the requirements of Article 110(3) of the Constitution-

(c) in respect of forty-six (46) Bills originating in the National Assembly, by publishing and considering the Bills and where such Bills have been passed by the National Assembly, by proceeding to secure presidential assent to the Bills without seeking the concurrence of the Speaker of the Senate in terms of Article 110(3) of the Constitution; and

(d) in respect of twenty-one (21) Bills originating in the National Assembly, by proceeding to consider the Bills in circumstances where the concurrence process under Article 110(3) has been initiated but has not been concluded and in disregard of the proposals by the Speaker of the Senate, in accordance with the directions given in the Advisory Opinion of the Supreme Court, for the establishment of a Joint Committee to advise the Speakers on the nature of the Bills, and thereafter, where such Bills have been passed by the National Assembly, by proceeding to secure presidential assent to the Bills;

COGNIZANT THAT Article 110(3) of the Constitution requires that before either House considers a Bill, the Speakers of the National Assembly and the Senate shall jointly resolve any question as to whether it is a Bill concerning counties and, if it is, whether it is a special or an ordinary Bill;

FURTHER COGNIZANT THAT Article 96 of the Constitution provides that the Senate represents the Counties and serves to protect the interests of the Counties and their Governments and further participates in the law-making function of Parliament by considering, debating and approving Bills concerning Counties as provided in Part 4 of Chapter Eight of the Constitution;

RECALLING that the Supreme Court of Kenya in Supreme Court Advisory Opinion No. 2 of 2013 reaffirmed the central role of Senate in the legislative process and in particular with respect to Bills that concern County Governments and further pronounced itself on the manner in which, pursuant to Article 110(3) of the Constitution, the Speakers of the two Houses are to jointly resolve the question as to whether a Bill is a Bill concerning counties and, if it is, whether it is a special or an ordinary Bill;

AND NOTING IN PARTICULAR that on legislation relating to security the Supreme Court of Kenya in Supreme Court Advisory Opinion No. 2 of 2013 cited, with approval, the Final Report of the Task Force on Devolved Government Vol. 1: A Report on the Implementation of Devolved Government in Kenya [page. 18] which stated, inter alia, that “although security and policing are national functions, how security and policing services are provided affects how county governments discharge their agricultural functions. As such, a bill on security and policing would be a bill concerning counties”

AND WHEREAS despite the Supreme Court's Advisory Opinion, the National Assembly failed to adhere to the requirements of Article 110(3) and (4) of the Constitution in respect to the Security Laws (Amendment) Bill, National Assembly Bills No. 39 of 2014 by considering the Bill and proceeding to secure presidential assent to the Bill without seeking the concurrence of the Speaker of the Senate in terms of Article 110(3) and without referring the Bill to the Senate in terms of Article 110(4) of the Constitution;

CONCERNED that the exclusion of the Senate in the consideration and enactment of legislation that relates to security adversely impacts the Senate's ability to represent the Counties and to protect the interests of the Counties and their Governments in security matters which are of great concern to the Counties and to the County Governments and which affect the functions and powers of County Governments;

FURTHER CONCERNED that the continued exclusion of the Senate in the legislative process in the national Parliament could eventually result in the weakening and eventual dismantling of the devolved system of government which is the cornerstone of the Constitution of Kenya, 2010;

RECALLING the resolution of the Senate of Thursday, 13th November, 2014 on the processing of legislation between the two Houses;

OBSERVING that despite the resolution of the Senate, the unconstitutional and unprocedural processing of legislation continues to persist as evidenced by the consideration and passage by the National Assembly of the Security Laws (Amendment) Bill, National Assembly Bills No. 39 of 2014;

NOW THEREFORE THE SENATE RESOLVES-

1. That the Security Laws (Amendment) Act, No. 19 of 2014 is unconstitutional and therefore null and void as the consideration and passage of the Bill violated Article 110(3) and (4) of the Constitution;
2. That the Security Laws (Amendment) Act, No. 19 of 2014 be included in the compendium of Bills set out in the Resolution of the Senate of Thursday, 13th November, 2014 in respect of which the Senate is seeking an Advisory Opinion from the Supreme Court on the constitutional status of Acts of Parliament which have been passed by one House of Parliament and assented to in contravention of Article 110(3) of the Constitution.

The Senate Majority Leader raised a point of order objecting the consideration by the Senate of the proposed Motion on grounds that the matters contemplated therein were sub judice, in terms of Standing Order 92 (1) and (2) and consequently provided evidence to that effect in accordance with Standing Order 92 (4).
