31. (1) Any loss, theft or destruction of the warehouse receipt shall be reported to the warehouse operator who shall notify the central registry. <sup>Replacement of</sup> <sub>receipts.</sub>

(2) A warehouse operator may, on the request of the holder of a warehouse receipt, issue a warehouse replacement receipt for a lost, stolen or destroyed warehouse receipt, where the request is accompanied by a police report of the loss, theft, or destruction of the receipt.

(3) A warehouse operator shall notify the central registry of the issuance of a replacement for a warehouse receipt that is lost, stolen or destroyed.

(4) A person who presents or deals with the original receipt after a replacement receipt has been issued commits an offence.

32. A replacement receipt issued under section 27 shall have the same standing as the original and shall not impose upon the warehouse operator any additional liability. Warranty and standing of duplicate receipts.

PART V—OBLIGATIONS AND RIGHTS OF WAREHOUSE OPERATOR UPON THEIR RECEIPTS

33. (1) A Warehouse operator shall deliver the goods referred to in a warehouse receipt to the holder of the receipt or depositor upon the presentation of the receipt. Obligation of warehouse operator to deliver.

(2) Where the warehouse operator refuses or fails to deliver the goods in compliance with the provisions of this section, the warehouse operator shall be required to prove the existence of any lawful act for the refusal or failure.

34. Where a warehouse operator delivers agricultural commodities in a warehouse to a person who is not lawfully entitled to the possession, the warehouse operator shall be liable for loss. Wrongful release of goods.

35. (1) A warehouse operator may commingle agricultural commodities of the same type and grade. Separation of goods and fungible goods.

(2) A warehouse operator shall be liable, to each depositor or holder, for the care and redelivery of a depositor or holder of the commingled agricultural commodity to the same extent and under the same circumstances as if the agricultural commodity had been stored separately.

36. (1) If goods are delivered to the warehouse operator by the owner or by a person whose act in conveying title to them to a purchaser in good faith for value would bind the owner, and a negotiable receipt is issued for them, they cannot thereafter, while in possession of the warehouse operator, be attached by garnishment or otherwise, or be levied on under an execution, unless the receipt be first surrendered to the warehouse operator, or its negotiation enjoined. Attachment or levy upon goods for which negotiable receipt has been issued.

(2) The warehouse operator shall in no case be compelled to deliver up the actual possession of the goods until the receipt is surrendered to the operator or impounded by the court.

37. (1) A warehouse operator has a lien on the goods covered by a warehouse receipt or on the proceeds of those goods in his or her possession for all lawful charges in the storage contract. Warehouse operator's lien.

(2) A warehouse operator is entitled to all remedies allowed by law to a creditor against a debtor, for the collection from the depositor of all charges and advances which the depositor has expressly contracted with the warehouse operator to pay.

(3) A warehouse operator's lien for a claim which has become due may be satisfied by the warehouse operator giving a written notice to the person on whose account the goods are held, and to any other person known by the warehouse operator to claim an interest in the goods:

Provided that:

- (a) such notice shall be given by delivery in person or by registered letter addressed to the last known place of business or abode of the person to be notified;
- (b) if the warehouse receipt has been registered in the Central Registry, the warehouse operator shall also give written notice to the chief executive officer.

PART VI—NEGOTIATION AND TRANSFER OF RECEIPTS

38. A warehouse receipt issued to a person may be negotiated by endorsement and delivery to another specified person. Negotiation by endorsement.

39. A warehouse receipt shall be regarded as duly negotiated in the manner stated under section 38 to a person who purchases it in good faith, for value without notice of any defect or claim to it by any other person. Persons capable of negotiating a Warehouse Receipt.

40. Subject to the provisions of this section, a person to whom a receipt has been duly negotiated shall acquire— Rights acquired after negotiation of warehouse receipts.

- (a) such title to goods as the person who negotiated the receipt to him had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value and also such title to the goods were to be delivered by the terms of the receipt had or had ability to convey to a purchase in good faith and for value;
- (b) the direct obligation of the warehouse operator to hold possession of the goods for him or her according to the terms of the receipt as fully as if the warehouse operator had contracted direct with him; and
- (c) all rights accruing under the law of agency, estoppel, including right to good delivery to the warehouse operator after the warehouse receipt was delivered.

41. (1) The transferee of a negotiable warehouse receipt for value and in good faith shall have the right to compel the transferor of such receipt to endorse the receipt. Rights and obligations of transferors and transferees of negotiable warehouse receipts.

(2) A warehouse receipt shall not be regarded as negotiated until the transferor endorses it.

(3) The endorsement of a warehouse receipt in good faith shall not make the transferee liable for any default or fraudulent acts on the receipt occasioned by the warehouse operator or previous endorsers.

42.(1) The negotiation or transfer by endorsement or delivery, or assignment of a warehouse receipt for value shall be an adequate proof or warranty that the person who negotiates, transfers or assigns that warehouse receipt, does so because— Warranties on negotiation of the warehouse receipt.

- (a) the receipt is genuine;
- (b) has legal right to negotiate, transfer or assign it;
- (c) knows no fact which would impair the validity or worth of the receipt; and
- (d) has the right to transfer the title to the goods.

(2) If the contract of the parties is in respect of the transfer of goods to which such warehouse receipt is involved, the fact that the goods are merchantable or fit for that particular purpose, would have been implied.

(3) Warranty shall not be implied in cases where a creditor of the transferor demands in good faith or receives payment of the debt for which such receipt is security.

PART VII—PENAL PROVISIONS

43. A warehouse operator, or any officer, agent, or employee of a warehouse operator, who issues or aids in issuing a receipt knowing the goods for which such receipt is issued have not been actually received by such warehouse operator, or are not under his actual control at the time of issuing such receipt, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a term of imprisonment not exceeding ten years or a fine not exceeding ten million Kenya shillings, or to both.
