PARLIAMENTARY MEMORANDUM ON KENYA'S RATIFICATION OF THE PROTOCOL TO THE CONSTITUTIVE ACT OF THE AFRICAN UNION RELATING TO THE PAN AFRICAN PARLIAMENT

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 The purpose of this Parliamentary Memorandum is to appraise the National Assembly and seek approval for Kenya's ratification of the Protocol to the Constitutive Act of the African Union Relating to the Pan African Parliament. The Executive approved the ratification.

2. BACKGROUND

- i. The Protocol was adopted by the Twenty-Third Ordinary Session of the African Union Assembly held on 27th June 2014 in Malabo, Equatorial Guinea.
- ii. The Protocol to the Constitutive Act of the African Union (AU) relating to the Pan-African Parliament (PAP) is a crucial legal instrument that establishes and governs the functioning of the Pan-African Parliament.
- iii. The formation of the Pan-African Parliament (PAP) is found in the Treaty establishing the African Economic Community (AEC). The AEC Treaty was signed in Abuja on 3rd June 1991 and came into force in May 1994. The mandate of the AEC Treaty was "to promote economic, social, and cultural development and the integration of the African economies." It was envisaged that the Pan-African Parliament (PAP) would be established by the year 2000, but this did not materialize.
- iv. The African States, therefore, resulted in the adoption of the Sirte Declaration in September 1999, at the 4th Extraordinary Session of the Assembly of the Organization of the African Unity (OAU) held in Libya.
- v. The Declaration announces decisions to prepare a Constitutive Act of the African Union that can be ratified by 31st December 2000 and become effective the following year.
- vi. The Constitutive Act lists the Pan-African Parliament as one of the AU's institutions and provides details on its membership, powers, and responsibilities; a protocol relevant to it must outline the structure of the Pan-African Parliament.

- vii. The Pan-African Parliament exercises consultative and advisory powers within the African Union. It serves as a platform for discussing and making recommendations on a wide range of matters, including peace and security, governance, human rights, economic integration, and sustainable development. However, it is important to note that the Pan-African Parliament's decisions are not binding on member states. Nevertheless, its recommendations carry significant weight and contribute to shaping AU policies and initiatives.
- viii. As of 2022, 15 Member States have deposited their instruments of ratification. These include Benin, Cameroon, Chad, Equatorial Guinea, Gambia, Ghana, Madagascar, Mali, Morocco, Niger, Sahrawi Arab Democratic Republic, Sierra Leone, Somalia, and Togo.
- ix. Kenya signed the Protocol on 16th July, 2023 and is yet to ratify the Protocol.

3. OBJECT AND SUBJECT MATTER

The Objectives of the Pan African Parliament shall be to:

- i. Give a voice to the African Peoples and the Diaspora;
- ii. Facilitate the effective implementation of the policies and objectives of the AU;
- iii. Promote the principles of human and people's rights and democracy in Africa;
- iv. Encourage good governance, respect for the rule of law, transparency, and accountability in Member states;
- v. Familiarize the peoples of Africa and the African Diaspora with the objectives and policies aimed at integrating the African Continent within the framework of the African Union;
- vi. Promote peace security and stability;
- vii. Contribute to a more prosperous future for the peoples of Africa by promoting collective self-reliance and economic recovery;
- viii. Facilitate cooperation and development in Africa;
- ix. Strengthen continental solidarity, co-operation and development and build a sense of common destiny;

- x. Facilitate cooperation among Regional Economic Communities in Africa and their Parliamentary fora;
- xi. To encourage National and Regional Parliaments to ratify and integrate treaties adopted by the AU into legal systems;
- xii. Co-operate with National and Regional Parliaments and similar bodies within and outside Africa as well as civil societies, community-based organizations, and grassroots organizations;
- xiii. Invite and encourage the full participation of African Diaspora as an important part of the African peoples in the building of the African Union in accordance with modalities approved by the Assembly.

4. OBLIGATIONS IMPOSED BY THE PROTOCOL.

State Parties are obligated to;

- i. The Pan African Parliamentarians shall be paid allowances by their respective State Parties.
- ii. The allowances for the President, Vice President and other officials of Committees shall be the responsibility of the respective State Parties;
- iii. The membership of the Pan African Parliament shall comprise five (5) members elected by each State Party¹.
- iv. At least two (2) of the elected members, shall be women. A delegation which does not satisfy this requirement shall not have the right to be accredited for representation in Parliament.

5. PROBLEM STATEMENT

- i. One of the primary concerns that led to the formation of the Protocol was the perceived democratic deficit within the African Union. Many African countries faced challenges related to governance, transparency, and citizen participation. The establishment of the Pan-African Parliament aimed to address this issue by providing a platform for elected representatives to contribute to continental decision-making and promote democratic principles.

- ii. At the time, there were challenges in achieving meaningful continental integration in Africa. The establishment of the Pan-African Parliament aimed to promote greater unity, cooperation, and integration among AU member states. By creating a forum for dialogue, the Parliament sought to foster a sense of common purpose and shared responsibility, leading to enhanced continental integration.
- iii. The Protocol aimed to strengthen the institutional architecture of the African Union by establishing a dedicated organ with consultative and advisory powers. The Pan-African Parliament was intended to complement the roles and functions of other AU organs, such as the Executive Council and the Assembly of Heads of State and Government, by providing additional perspectives and recommendations on issues of continental importance.
- iv. The formation of the Pan-African Parliament was also driven by the desire to encourage African-led solutions to the challenges faced by the continent. By involving elected representatives from national parliaments, the Parliament aimed to foster ownership and responsibility among African nations in addressing their own issues and shaping the future of the continent.
- v. The Protocol aimed to strengthen the institutional architecture of the African Union by establishing a dedicated organ with consultative and advisory powers. The Pan-African Parliament was intended to complement the roles and functions of other AU organs, such as the Executive Council and the Assembly of Heads of State and Government, by providing additional perspectives and recommendations on issues of continental importance.

6. JUSTIFICATION
