MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Statement of the Objects and Reasons for the Bill

The principal object of the Bill is to provide for the regulation of private employment agencies and the recruitment of workers within and outside Kenya and to safeguard the rights and welfare of job seekers and migrant workers. The Bill seeks to consolidate the laws relating to labour migration and proposes to repeal sections of the Labour Institutions Act, 2007 and the Employment Act, 2007.

Part I of the Bill provides for preliminary matters such as the interpretation of terms used in the Bill, objects of the Act and the application of the Act.

Part II of the Bill provides for the administration of the Act. This Part stipulates the functions of government and the National Employment Authority under the Bill and specifies the powers necessary for the performance of those functions. It establishes the Multi-Agency Committee on Vetting of Private Employment Agencies which is responsible for vetting and approving applications for registration made by private employment agencies. This Part also outlines the functions of labour attaches.

Part III of the Bill provides for the registration of private employment agencies and the cancellation of such registration. This Part also provides for the execution of security bond by private employment agencies engaged in the employment of workers for foreign employment. The security bond is intended to be used in the repatriation, payment of wages and other entitlements in the event of default by the private employment agency or the employer. It also provides for the approval of job orders and the advertisement of jobs by private employment agencies and the development of a code of conduct for employment agencies.

Part IV of the Bill provides for pre-departure procedures for foreign employment. This Part provides for pre departure training for migrant workers, the attestation of foreign contracts of employment and the registration of migrant workers. The part also exempts certain classes of persons from the pre departure procedures. Part V of the Bill provides for enforcement of the Act and provides for the appointment of inspectors and their functions and powers.

Part VI of the Bill provides for miscellaneous matters such as the establishment of the Migrant Workers Welfare Fund under the Public Finance Management Act., the repatriation of migrant workers, conclusion of bilateral labour agreements, appeals against administrative decisions made under the Bill, general offences, general penalty, establishment of safe houses in destination countries, the power of the Cabinet Secretary to restrict labour migration and to make regulations and transitional provisions.

Schedule provides for repealed laws.

Statement on the delegation of legislative powers and limitation of fundamental rights and freedoms

The Bill does not delegate legislative powers, nor does it limit the fundamental rights and freedoms.

Statement on how the Bill concerns county governments

The Bill mandates the national government to consult county governments in creation of registers and investment opportunities for migrant workers hence affecting the functions of county governments in terms of developmental planning.

The Bill is therefore a Bill concerning county government in terms of Article 110 (1) (a) of the Constitution.

Statement that the Bill is not a money Bill, within the meaning of Article 114 of the Constitution

This Bill is not a money Bill within the meaning of Article 114 of the Constitution.

Dated the 13th June, 2023.

MUTINDA MAUREEN TABITHA,
Senator.
