 - (b) the referendum question or option;
 - (c) persons eligible to vote in the referendum;
 - (d) public education and sensitisation; and
 - (e) any other matter specific to the referendum.

(4) Where an issue to be decided in a referendum under subsection (1) has been referred to the Commission the Commission shall conduct a referendum within ninety days in accordance with this Act.

19. Nothing in this Act precludes the Commission from taking any administrative measures to ensure the effective conduct of a referendum.

General power of the Commission.

PART IV—REFERENDUM PETITIONS

20. (1) Unless specifically provided for in this Act, the procedure applicable to an election petition shall apply to a referendum petition.

Referendum petitions.

(2) A referendum petition may be presented in the High Court by any person in accordance with Article 22(1) and (2) of the Constitution.

(3) A petition—

- (a) to question the conduct, result and validity of a referendum shall be filed within fourteen days after the date of declaration of the results of the referendum and served within seven days of presentation;
 - (b) to seek a declaration concerning any matter relating to the referendum shall be presented within fourteen days after the proclamation of the referendum or occurrence the event complained against whichever is later.
- (4) A petition challenging the conduct, result or validity of a referendum shall—
- (a) set out the facts relied upon to invalidate the referendum;
 - (b) identify the specific matter or matters on which the petitioner relies as justifying the grant of relief; and
 - (c) contain a request for the relief to which the petitioner claims to be entitled.
- (5) A referendum petition shall be heard and determined within thirty days of lodging the petition.

21. (1) A petitioner who files a referendum petition shall serve all the respondents to the petition within seven days of filing the petition.

Service of a referendum petition.

(2) A petition may be served personally upon the respondent, electronically, or by advertisement in a newspaper with national circulation.

(3) A petition that has not been served within the stipulated timelines shall be struck out.

22. (1) Where, at the hearing of a referendum petition, a person is alleged to have been guilty of a corrupt practice in relation to the referendum, or where a copy of a referendum petition is served on a particular person on the direction of the High Court, the High Court may, on the application of that person, add or name that person as a respondent to the petition.

Respondents to a referendum petition.

(2) Where, at the trial of a referendum petition presented by the Commission, a question of law arises in relation to action or omission by a referendum officer, the High Court may, on the application of the Commission, name the referendum officer as a respondent to the petition.

23. (1) A referendum petition shall be signed by every petitioner or by an advocate acting on their behalf, if more than one.

Filing of referendum petition.

(2) Whenever a referendum petition is filed under this section, the Registrar of the High Court shall, in writing, inform the Commission of the filing.

24. (1) A referendum petition shall be heard and determined by a bench of three judges appointed by the Chief Justice.

25. (1) A referendum petition shall act as a stay of the results of a referendum from the time of filing of the petition, until the petition is heard and determined, and any period of filing of an appeal has lapsed without an appeal being filed.

Operation of declared result of issue submitted to referendum.

(2) Where a referendum petition is not presented to the High Court within the time specified under section 19(2), the declared result of referendum shall—

- (a) have effect from the date on which the result is declared;
- (b) be final; and
- (c) be conclusive evidence of the voting at the referendum and of the result of the referendum.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing or delaying the coming into operation of any law in respect of which a referendum is held pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution or any other law if—

- (a) it is stated in the declared result of the referendum that the provisions of the Act are supported by the votes of a majority of the persons entitled to vote in the referendum; and
- (b) the question raised by any referendum petition or, if more than one, by all referendum petitions presented to the High Court in respect of such referendum would not, if decided in favour of the petitioner or petitioners, as the case may be, lead to a declaration by the Commission that the votes of a majority of the citizens voting in the referendum did not support the provisions of the said referendum.

26. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Registrar of the High Court shall make a list of all the referendum petitions filed under this Part in the order in which they are filed, and shall keep in the Registrar's office, a copy of the list which shall be open for inspection by any person who applies to inspect the list.

Duty of Registrar to make list of referendum petitions

(2) Where more than one petition is presented relating to the same referendum, all such petitions may be dealt with as one petition as far as the inquiry into the referendum is concerned.

27. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 43, the Rules Committee constituted under the Civil Procedure Act, may make rules generally to regulate the practice and procedure of the High Court with respect to the filing of referendum petitions, including rules—

Practice procedure Cap. 21.

(a) specifying—

- (i) the time within which any requirement of the rules is to be complied with;
- (ii) the costs of and incidental to the filing and the trial of a referendum petition; and
- (iii) the fees to be charged in respect of proceedings of a referendum petition; and

(b) generally, with regard to any other matter relating to a referendum petition as the Chief Justice may deem necessary.

(2) The High Court may, make such order as to costs as it may consider fit and just in respect of any referendum petition dismissed under this section.

28. (1) Where there are two or more petitioners and one or more of the petitioners dies at any time before the final order of the court hearing the petition, the surviving petitioner or petitioners shall be entitled to continue with the petition.

Death of petitioner

(2) Upon death of a petitioner under subsection (1), any qualified person may apply to the court to be substituted as the petitioner.

29. (1) A referendum petition shall be—

Hearing of referendum

(a) heard in open court; and

(b) heard and determined within thirty days from the date of presentation of a petition.

(2) The High Court may, in respect of the trial of a referendum petition, exercise such powers within its civil jurisdiction as it may deem appropriate.

(3) A referendum petition may be withdrawn by the petitioner on notice to the other parties and the High Court, subject to any order of the Court as to costs.

30. (1) An appeal from the High Court in a referendum petition shall lie to the Court of Appeal on matters of law only and shall be —

Appeals to the Court of Appeal.

(a) filed within fourteen days of the decision of the High Court; and

(b) heard and determined within sixty days of the filing of the appeal.

(2) An appeal under subsection (2) shall act as a stay of the results of a referendum until the appeal is heard and determined.

31. (1) A court hearing a referendum petition may, at the hearing of the petition—

Powers of a court to summon witnesses in a

(a) issue summons to any person who appears to the court to be concerned in or affected by the referendum petition to attend as a witness at such hearing; and

(b) examine any witness or person who is present at the hearing even if the witness or person is not called as a witness by any party to the proceedings.

(2) A witness or person under subsection (1) may, upon examination, be cross-examined by or on behalf of the petitioner or the respondent.

(3) Where a person is summoned to attend as a witness under subsection (1), the Court may direct that a copy of the referendum petition be served on that person.

32. A voter who has cast a ballot at a referendum shall not, in proceedings to question the referendum be required to state how he or she voted.

Secrecy of the ballot.

33. (1) The High Court on its own motion or on an application by a petitioner may, during the hearing of a referendum petition, order for a scrutiny of votes to be carried out in such manner as the High Court may determine.

Examination of votes.

Cap. 7

(2) The provisions of section 82 of the Elections Act shall apply with respect to scrutiny of votes under this section.

(3) The Commission shall be responsible for the custody of all the ballot boxes.

34. (1) At the conclusion of the hearing of a referendum petition challenging the conduct or result of the referendum, the High Court may—

Powers of Court

- (a) dismiss the petition;
- (b) declare the published result to be incorrect and direct the publication of the correct results;
- (c) uphold the result of the referendum; or
- (d) declare the referendum to be void.

(2) Without limiting the generality of this section, the High Court may exercise its powers to declare a referendum void on the ground that this Act or the regulations made under this Act were contravened during the referendum, and such contravention has seriously affected the result of the referendum.

(3) The Registrar of the High Court shall, within seven days of conclusion of the proceedings in respect of a referendum petition, submit to the Commission—

- (a) a certificate under the Registrar's hand, stating that the hearing of the referendum petition has been concluded; and
- (b) a certified copy of any decision made by the High Court under subsection (1).

(4) The Commission shall, where the Court has declared the published result to be incorrect, declare and publish the result of the referendum in accordance with the findings of the High Court.

(5) Where the High Court declares a referendum void, the Commission shall conduct a fresh referendum within sixty days.

35. The costs of a referendum petition shall be borne in such manner and in such proportions as the High Court may order.

Petition expenses.

PART IV—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

36. (1) All documents relating to the referendum shall be forwarded to and retained in safe custody by the Commission for a period of six months after the results of the referendum have been declared and shall, subject to the provisions of the Public Archives and Documentation Service Act, and unless the Commission or the High Court otherwise directs, be destroyed.

Retention and public inspection of documents

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Statement of objects and reasons

The principal object of this Bill is to consolidate the law relating to conduct of a referendum, to provide for a transparent and fair process in order to obtain a clear expression of the will of people, by establishing the procedures for the conduct of a referendum. The structure of the Bill is as follows:

Clauses 1 to 4 provide for preliminary matters including the short title, interpretation and the application of the Elections Act to referenda.

Clause 5 provide for the notification of the Commission by the President of a referendum to amend the Constitution in relation to matters specified in Articles 255 (1) and 257 (10) of the Constitution. Upon the notification, the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission shall conduct a referendum in 90 days.

Clause 7 and 8 provide for the consideration of the draft Bill, in respect of an amendment to the Constitution through a popular initiative, by both county assemblies and Parliament.

Clause 10 provides the procedure and timelines for framing the referendum question or option and assigning symbols for each answer.

Clause 11 of the Bill provides for notice of holding a referendum and requires the Commission to publish the notice in the Gazette as well as in electronic and print media. The notice shall contain specific particulars relating to the referendum.

Clause 12, 13 and 14 provides for formation and registration of referendum committees, appointment of the chief agent for every referendum committee, costs of referendum committees and invokes the relevant sections of the Election Campaign Financing Act, 2013.

Clause 15 provides for the approval threshold in a referendum which is at least twenty percent of the registered voters in each of at least half of the counties vote in the referendum and the majority of the citizens voting in the referendum.

Clause 16 provides for declaration of results and certification of the results of the referendum. This is to be done within three days of polls.

Clause 17 and 18 provide for the conduct of other forms of referendum, including county referenda and referenda conducted pursuant to a specific resolution of Parliament. This clause contemplates that the resolution of Parliament shall specify the wording of the referendum question or option. The notice shall contain key particulars including the nature and purpose of the referendum, the referendum question(s), the symbols assigned for each answer, the date of the referendum, polling time, date of registration of referendum committees and the campaign period for the referendum.

Clause 19 provides for a general power of the Commission to take administrative measures to ensure successful conduct of a referendum.

Clauses 20 provides for filing of referendum petitions within fourteen days, and for the petitions to be heard within thirty days from the date of filing.

Clause 21 to 35 also provide for referendum petitions including persons who may present petitions, respondents, composition of the Court, appeals to the Court of Appeal, hearing of petitions, examination of votes and petition expenses. Clause 30 provides for appeals to the Court of Appeal to be filed within thirty days of the decision of the High Court.

Clauses 36 to 42 contain general provisions dealing with the documents, offences and general penalty, application of the Election Offences Act, 2016, duty to cooperate, prosecutions and arrests, power to make regulations and consequential amendments.

Statement on the limitation of fundamental rights and freedoms

The Bill does not limit fundamental rights and freedoms.

Statement on how the bill concerns county governments

This Bill concerns county governments in terms of Article 110(1) (a) of the Constitution.

Statement that the Bill is not a money Bill, within the meaning of Article 114 of the Constitution

The Bill is not a money Bill within the meaning of Article 114 of the Constitution.

Dated the 28th January, 2026.

Section 41 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

41. Access to and obligation of media

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a political party participating in an election shall have access to the state owned media services during the campaign period.

(2) The Commission shall, after consultations with the independent candidates, the political parties concerned and the officers responsible for the state owned media services, monitor the equitable allocation of air-time during the campaign period.

(3) Every state owned print or electronic media which publishes any information relating to the electoral process shall be guided by the principle of total impartiality and shall refrain from any discrimination in relation to any candidate.

(4) The Code of Conduct for the practice of journalism prescribed under the Media Council Act (Cap. 411B) shall be subscribed to and observed by every media house and every person who reports on any election and referendum under the Constitution and this Act.

(5) For the purpose of giving effect to this section, the Commission may, in writing, issue directives to the media.

(6) The Commission may prohibit a media house that contravenes the Code of Conduct prescribed under the Media Council Act (Cap. 411B) from transmitting information related to an election under this Act.

Section 49 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

49. Initiation of a referendum.

(1) Whenever it is necessary to hold a referendum on any issue, the President shall by notice refer the issue to the Commission for the purposes of conducting a referendum.

(2) Where an issue to be decided in a referendum has been referred to the Commission under subsection (1), the Commission shall frame the question or questions to be determined during the referendum.

(3) The Commission shall, in consultation with the Speaker of the relevant House, lay the question referred to in subsection (2) before the House for approval by resolution.

(4) The National Assembly may approve one or more questions for a referendum.

(5) The Commission shall publish the question approved under subsection (4) in the Gazette and in the electronic and print media of national circulation.

(6) The Commission shall conduct the referendum within ninety days of publication of the question.

(7) The Commission may assign such symbol for each answer to the referendum question or questions as it may consider necessary.

(8) A symbol assigned under subsection (7) shall not resemble that of a political party or of an independent candidate.

Section 50 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

50. Notice of holding referendum.

(1) The Commission shall, within fourteen days after publication of the question referred to in section 49 publish a notice of the holding of the referendum and the details thereof in the Gazette, in the electronic and print media of national circulation.

(2) The notice shall specify—

- (a) the referendum question or questions and the option of the answer or answers;
- (b) the symbols assigned for the answer or answers to the referendum question or questions;
- (c) the day on which the referendum is to be held which shall not be less than twenty one days after the date of the publication of the notice;

- (d) the polling time of the referendum;
- (e) the day by which the referendum committees shall have registered with the Commission; and
- (f) the day and time by which campaign in support of or in opposition to the referendum question shall start and cease.

Section 51 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

51. Referendum Committees.

(1) Where a referendum question requires a "yes" or "no" answer, persons intending to campaign for or against the referendum question shall form such national referendum committees and constituency referendum committees as are necessary.

(2) Where there is more than one referendum question, persons intending to campaign for or against each referendum question shall, on application to the Commission, form one national referendum committee each and one committee each in every constituency for each referendum question.

(3) A referendum committee shall apply to the Commission for registration in the prescribed form.

(4) An application under subsection (3) shall be accompanied by information showing that the applicant adequately represents persons campaigning for or against the referendum question.

(5) The national referendum committees shall control and regulate the constituency referendum committees.

(6) A member of a referendum committee shall subscribe to and abide by the Electoral Code of Conduct set out in the Second Schedule.

Section 52 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

52. Costs of referendum committee.

(1) Each referendum committee shall bear its own costs during the campaign period of the referendum.

(2) The costs referred to in subsection (1) include payment of the agents of the respective referendum committees.

Section 53 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

53. Procedure for conduct of referendum.

The procedure for the conduct of an election shall apply with necessary modifications to the conduct of referendum.

Section 54 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

54. Voting threshold.

A referendum question on an issue other than that contemplated in Articles 255, 256 and 257 of the Constitution shall be decided by a simple majority of the citizens voting in the referendum.

Section 55 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

55. General power of the Commission.

Nothing in this Act shall preclude the Commission from taking any administrative measures to ensure effective conduct of the referendum.

Section 88 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

88. Election petition procedures to apply to referendum petition.

Unless specifically provided for in this Act, the procedure applicable to an election petition shall apply to a referendum petition.

Section 89 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

89. Referendum petition.

(1) The conduct, result and validity of a referendum may be challenged by petition to the High Court.

(2) A petition challenging the conduct, result or validity of a referendum shall—

- (a) set out the facts relied on to invalidate the referendum;
- (b) identify the specific matter or matters on which the petitioner relies as justifying the grant of relief;
- (c) contain a request for the relief to which the petitioner claims to be entitled; and
- (d) be filed in the High Court within twenty-one days of the publication of the notice of the results of the referendum in the Gazette.

(3) A referendum petition may be presented on any of the following grounds—

- (a) in respect of the result of the voting in all the constituencies or in any one constituency, that corrupt practices prevailed at or in relation to the voting at the referendum in that constituency, or that there was an error or misconduct, whether by act or omission, on the part of a referendum officer; or

- (b) in respect of the declared result of the referendum, that there was an error in the counting or tallying of the votes cast in the referendum.

Section 90 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

90. Composition of Court.

A referendum petition shall be heard and determined by a bench of three judges appointed by the Chief Justice.

Section 91 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

91. Operation of declared result of issue submitted to referendum.

(1) Where a referendum petition is not presented to the High Court within the time specified in section 89 (2) (d), the declared result of referendum shall—

- (a) have effect from the date on which the result is declared;
- (b) be final and not be challenged in any court of law; and
- (c) be conclusive evidence of the voting at the referendum and of the result of the referendum.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing or delaying the coming into operation of any law in respect of which a referendum is held pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution or any other written law if—

- (a) it is stated in the declared result of the referendum that the provisions of the Act are supported by a simple majority of the citizens voting in the referendum; and
- (b) the question raised by any referendum petition or, if more than one, by all referendum petitions presented to the High Court in respect of such referendum would not, if decided in favour of the petitioner or petitioners, as the case may be, lead to a declaration by the Commission that a simple majority of the citizens voting in such referendum did not support the provisions of the said law.

Section 92 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

92. Persons who may present referendum petition.

- (1) A referendum petition may be presented in the High Court, by—
 - (a) in the case of a petition in respect of the result of the voting in a constituency, a person who voted lawfully or had a right to vote in that constituency at the referendum;

(b) in the case of a petition in respect of the declared result of the referendum, a person who voted at the referendum or had a right to vote at the referendum; or(c)in any other case, the Commission.

(2) A petitioner who presents a referendum petition shall serve all the respondents to the petition within seven days of filing the petition.

(3) A petitioner shall publish a notice of the petition in the Gazette and in at least one newspaper of national circulation, within fourteen days after the petition is filed.

(4) A petition may be served personally upon the respondent or by advertisement in a newspaper with national circulation.

Section 93 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

93. Respondents to referendum petition.

(1) Where, at the hearing of a referendum petition, a person is alleged to have been guilty of a corrupt practice in relation to the referendum, or where a copy of a referendum petition is served on a particular person on the direction of the High Court, the High Court may, on the application of that person, add or name that person as a respondent to the petition.

(2) Where, at the trial of a referendum petition presented by the Commission, a question of law arises in relation to action or omission by a referendum officer, the High Court may, on the application of the Attorney-General, name the referendum officer as a respondent to the petition.

Section 94 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

94. Filing of referendum petition.

(1) A referendum petition shall be signed by the petitioner or by all the petitioners, if more than one.

(2) Whenever a referendum petition is presented under this section, the Registrar of the High Court shall, in writing, inform the Commission of the filing.

Section 95 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

95. Duty of Registrar to make list of referendum petitions.

(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the Registrar of the High Court shall make a list of all the referendum petitions filed under this Part in the order in which they are filed, and shall keep in the Registrar's office, a copy of the list which shall be open for inspection by any person who applies to inspect the list.

(2) A referendum petition shall, unless the High Court orders otherwise, be tried in the order in which it appears on the list made by the Registrar under subsection (1).

(3) Where more than one petition is presented relating to the same referendum, all such petitions shall be dealt with as one petition as far as the inquiry into the referendum is concerned.

Section 96 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

96. Practice procedure and security for costs.

(1) Subject to the provisions of section 98, the Rules Committee as constituted under the Civil Procedure Act (Cap. 21), may make rules generally to regulate the practice and procedure of the High Court with respect to the filing and trial of election and referendum petitions, including rules—

(a) specifying—

- (i) the time within which any requirement of the rules is to be complied with;
- (ii) the costs of and incidental to the filing and the trial of an election and referendum petition; and
- (iii) the fees to be charged in respect of proceedings of an election and referendum petition; and

(b) generally with regard to any other matter relating to an election and referendum petition as the Chief Justice may deem necessary.

(2) A petitioner shall deposit one million shillings as security for costs of a petition presented under this Act, within ten days of presenting the petition.

(3) Where a petitioner does not deposit security for costs as required under this section after presenting of a referendum petition the referendum petition shall be struck out.

(4) The High Court may make such order as to costs as it may deem fit and just in respect of any referendum petition dismissed under this section.

Section 97 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

97. Death of or delay by petitioner.

Where there are two or more petitioners and any of the petitioners dies at any time before the final order of the court hearing the petition, the surviving petitioner or petitioners shall be entitled to continue with the petition.

Section 98 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

98. Hearing of referendum petition.

(1) A referendum petition shall be—(a)heard and determined within six months from the date of presentation of a petition; and(b)heard in open court.(2)The High Court may, in respect of the trial of a referendum petition, exercise such powers within its civil jurisdiction as it may deem appropriate.(3)A referendum petition may be withdrawn by the petitioner on notice to the other parties and the High Court, subject to any order of the Court as to costs.

Section 99 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

99. Powers of a court to summon witnesses in a referendum petition.

(1) A Court hearing a referendum petition may, at the hearing of the petition—(a)order any person who appears to the court to be concerned in or affected by the referendum petition to attend as a witness at such hearing; and(b)examine any witness or any person who is present at the hearing even if the witness or person is not called as a witness by any party to the proceedings:Provided that after examination by the court, the witness or person may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the petitioner or the respondent.

(2) Where a person is ordered to attend as a witness under subsection (1), the Court may direct that a copy of the referendum petition be served on that person.

(3)A person who is called as a witness at the trial of a referendum petition shall not be excused from answering any question relating to any offence connected with the referendum on the ground that the answer thereto may incriminate them or on the ground of privilege.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3)—(a)a witness who answers every question which they are required to answer under this section to the satisfaction of the court, and the answers to which may tend to incriminate them, shall not be liable to prosecution for any offence committed by them in connection with the referendum and in respect of which they are so examined, and shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity issued by the Registrar stating that the person is discharged from liability and shall not be prosecuted for that offence; and(b)an answer by a witness to a question before the Court under this section shall not, except in the case of any criminal proceedings for giving false evidence in respect of such evidence, be admissible as evidence in any civil or criminal proceedings against them.

(5) Where a person has received a certificate of indemnity under subsection (3), and legal proceedings are, at any time, brought against that person for an offence to which the certificate relates, the court having cognizance of the case shall, on proof of the certificate of indemnity, stay such proceedings.

(6) All reasonable expenses incurred by any person in attending at or appearing before the High Court to give evidence as a witness at the trial of a referendum petition shall be paid to such person according to the scale of allowances and expenses appropriate in civil proceedings before the High Court.

Section 100 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

100. Prohibition of disclosure of vote.

A voter who has voted at a referendum shall not, in proceedings to question the referendum be required to state how he voted.

Section 101 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

101. Examination of votes.

(1) The High Court on its own motion or on an application by a petitioner may, during the hearing of a referendum petition, order for a scrutiny of votes to be carried out in such manner as the High Court may determine.

(2) The provisions of section 82 shall apply with respect to scrutiny of votes under this section.

Section 102 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

102. Powers of Court.

(1) At the conclusion of the hearing of a referendum petition challenging the conduct or result of the referendum, the High Court may—

- (a) dismiss the petition;
- (b) declare the published result to be incorrect;
- (c) declare the referendum to be void; or(d)uphold the petition in whole or in part.

(2) Without limiting the generality of this section, the High Court may exercise its powers to declare a referendum void on the ground that this Act or the regulations made under this Act were contravened during the referendum, and such contravention has seriously affected the result of the referendum.

(3) The Registrar of the High Court shall deliver to the Commission a certified copy of any decision made by the High Court under subsection (1).

(4) The Registrar of the High Court shall, at the conclusion of the proceedings in respect of a referendum petition, submit to the Commission a certificate under the Registrar's hand, stating that the hearing of the referendum petition has been concluded, and the Commission shall, upon receipt of such certificate, declare and publish the result of the referendum in accordance with the findings of the High Court.

(5) A declaration made by the Commission under subsection (4) shall be final, shall not be challenged in any court, and shall be conclusive evidence of the voting at the referendum to which it relates and of the result of such referendum.

(6) Where the High Court declares a referendum void, the Commission shall conduct a fresh referendum.

Section 103 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

103. Petition expenses.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, all costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the presentation and hearing of a referendum petition shall be borne in such manner and in such proportions as the High Court may order, and in particular, any costs which, in the opinion of the High Court, have been caused by any vexatious conduct or by any frivolous or vexatious allegations or objections on the part of the petitioner or of the respondent, may be ordered to be paid by the party by whom such costs have been caused.

(2) Where in the hearing of a referendum petition a person appears to the High Court to have been guilty of any corrupt practice relating to the referendum, the High Court may, after giving that person an opportunity to make a statement to show why the order should not be made, order the whole or a portion of the costs of or incidental to the trial of the referendum petition to be paid by that person to such person or persons as the High Court may determine.

(3) Money deposited as security shall, when no longer needed as security for costs, be returned to the person in whose name it is deposited or to any person entitled to receive the money by order of the High Court, which may be made upon motion after notice and proof that all just claims have been satisfied or otherwise sufficiently provided for as the High Court may require.

Section 105 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

105. Duty to co-operate.

(1) It shall be the duty of every public officer and public or private entity to co-operate with the Commission in its activities during an election and not to hinder the Commission in carrying out its functions.

(2) It shall be the duty of police officers in their respective areas of operation, to take all necessary measures for the maintenance of law and order and stability necessary for the conduct of an election and to protect and uphold the rights of all persons under any written law relating to elections.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of the law relating to the National Police Service or any other written law, a police officer assigned duties during the conduct of an election or referendum shall be deemed to be an elections officer for purposes of this Act and subject to direction and instruction of the Commission.

(4) It shall be the duty of—

- (a) all officers of the county administration, in their respective administrative units;
- (b) all persons in charge of local authority facilities;
- (c) persons in charge of facilities;
- (d) all political parties and members of the public;
- (e) all persons in charge of public utilities including teachers in charge of public schools;
- (f) the Registrar of Persons; and
- (g) the Registrar of Political Parties, to give the Commission and its officers the support and collaboration necessary for the Commission to execute the activities relating to the conduct of an election.

Section 109 of Cap 7 of which it is proposed to amend—

109. Regulations.

(1) The Commission may make regulations generally for the better carrying out of the purposes and provisions of this Act, and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may make regulations to—

- (a) prescribe the manner in which registers of voters shall be compiled and the manner in which they shall be revised;
- (b) prescribe the procedure for registration and issuance of voters cards and provide for the progressive registration of Kenyan citizens living abroad and prisoners;
